Morning tea will be at the Singing Ship (it really sings) From this picturesque vantage point we will wander down to the stunning tribute & impressive art works of Emu Park's War Memorial. After a delicious dinner Wayne will entertain us with 50's, 60's & 70's songs.

After a hot breakfast we set out to explore the rich architectural heritage of Rockhampton - The Walter Reid Building, Customs House, City Hall, The Heritage Hotel, Arch Park Station where statues talk and sing & we learn about trams that travelled from Paris to Rockhampton while enjoying that cuppa. Tonight Bob Pacey our Bush Poet will entertain us with funny, hilarious yarns.

The beauty of the area will astound you, the rugged mountains, rainforest edged creeks & ancient cycads are not to be missed & we visit Nob Creek Pottery. After morning tea we will discover how the leaves of a Melaleuca Tree are transferred into Tree Oil at Eco Water Park station. Marvel at the birdlife, say hello to Henry the tortoise & learn all about nature at its best. Dinner tonight is with country & western singer Ken Jones. One of the best.

After Breakfast this morning, Yeppoon is yours (free time) to explore the town's delightful welcoming atmosphere, browse the many boutiques and cafes & see thousands of little red & black flying foxes as they return home to roost. Later on today we will take in a sunset cruise on the mighty Fitzroy River with bubbles & finger food look out for crocodiles. Dinner will be at the Great Western Hotel where we will watch cowboys practise and perfect their rodeo skills. Awesome.
